QUESTS GENERAL STATS SYSTEM

TAKING CARE OF BUSINESS

After successfully locating the Ragged Flagon, Brynjolf has given me a new assignment. Three business owners in Riften are proving to be a thorn in his side and I'm supposed to teach them the error of their ways. I should speak to Brynjolf about these townspeople in the event that they prove to be as stubborn as I'm expecting them to be.

THE ILLUSTRATED MANUAL

Vicar Maximillian DeSoto has asked you to find a banned heretical book, the Journal of M. Bakonu. The Vicar was initially quite pleased to receive the book, but quickly became frustrated when he found he could not read it.

Quest Details

Search the Collector's Domicile
Max says the journal was last possessed by a book collector whose residence was part of a small community directly north of Edgewater. He has marked the location on your map.

Retrieve the Journal
When the collector had to abandon his home, he hid the banned book in a small cave along with some other contraband. Travel to the cave and retrieve it.
You found an entrance to the river cave mentioned in the collector's note. The book must lie somewhere within.

Return to the Vicar
You've found the Journal of M. Bakonu. Return to the Vicar.
